BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER.

States that the appointment of Mr. N. Ramarao as Actg. Asst. Secy. slightly alters the Scale of Asstt. & Under Secretaries from the third series table and suggests the desirability of fixing a combined number for officers of both these ranks.

NOTES AND ORDERS.

x2

By the posting of Mr. B. Rameshwaraiya as Aj. Dy. Com. and the appointment in his place of Mr. N. Ramarao as Acting Assistant Secretary the number of Assistant Secretaries in the Gen. Dept. Secrt has become 4 and the number of Under Secretaries reduced to 1, while according to the Civil Service Rules of 16th January 1913 there are to be 3 Assistant Secretaries and 2 Under Secretaries. In order that there might be no occasion for even such slight departure from the sanctioned scale, the Comptroller suggests a combined number being fixed for both these classes of officers, the designation in each case being determined by the rank of the officer concerned in the list of Assistant Comrs.

2. The Comptroller's suggestion, if accepted, would permit of all Asstt. Comrs posted to the Secretariat being designated Under Secretaries or all of them Asstt. Secretaries, while the Civil Service Rules contemplate two classes of Assistants for the Secretariat – Asstt. secretaries & Under Secretaries. It may therefore be desirable to make it clear what classes of Asstt. Comrs attached to the Secretariat are to be designated Under Secretaries. There appear to be no orders on the point at present. The only reference, that could be traced, to this appointment is para 15 of Mr. V.P. Madhavarao's of 18/- June 1908 in the printed compilation herewith put up. The practice has been to give the designation of Under Secretary ordinarily to Senior Asstt. Comrs & Asstt Comrs of the 1st class, posted to the Secretariat.

H.J. 24-2-14. 3. So far as work is concerned both the Under Secys have for the same work of branches and are entrusted with the same amount of powers. There are no reasons assigned for having 3 Under & 3 Asstt Secys. before the Secrett reorganisation the Secrett Officers were Under Secys & there was then no class of Asstt Secys. A division of Secrett Officers into 2 classes Under Asstt would be helpful when any scheme of decentralisation is thought of. Recently has been conferred as State ? ordinary on Asstt /s 18/ class taken on to the Secrett. Money perhaps be better to divide the division than do away with it & it is is permissible to hazard an humble opinion to confer the designation on grounds of competency in the particular work in the Secrett than the class Asstt Comrs in which the Officer at present

4. I think that the existing division of the Secretariat officers into two classes — Under Secretaries and Assistant Secretaries-may be continued. Though theoretically the work of both kinds of officers is alike, the Under Secretaries, as more senior and experienced officers are generally given greater scope and powers ~~is given to them~~ in the disposal of cases as well as in regard to the direct submission of cases to the Dewan or member in charge. As observed by Mr. Lakshminarasimha Rao, the present classification will also be found very useful when any scheme of greater decentralization is thought of.

5. It is true that at present we have an Assistant Secretary in the place of one of the Under Secretaries. This is only a temporary arrangement during the absence of Mr. Ramaswamiah on other duty, and even this can be remedied by the temporary appointment of one of the Assistant Secretaries as an Under Secretary. The most senior officer among the present staff of Assistant Secretaries is Mr. Lakshminarasimha Rao and he may be temporarily appointed as an Under Secretary, as I have already suggested in another file.

No modification of the Govt-order of 6th Jan 1913 seems necessary. It is the scale of 5 officers allowed for the Sec that is most important. There can be no objection to an Asst Secy being appointed as against an Under-Secy provides the scale is not exceeded. The former designation is inferior to the latter and the elasticity of the present arrangement need not be sacrificed.

SERIAL No. 52

To

Secretary to the Government of Mysore,

General and Revenue *Department.*s.

SIR,

I have the honor to state that, in consequence of the appointment of Mr. N. Rama Rao, B.A., B.L., to act as Assistant Secretary to Government notified in No. G. 4811/G1.Mis.66-13-33 dated 23rd December 1913, the scale of Assistant and Under Secretaries for the Secretariat which is fixed at 3 and 2 respectively in the Civil Service Order of January 1913, is slightly altered. It raises the number of Assistant Secretaries by one causing a corresponding decrease in the number of Under Secretaries.

The scale fixed in the Civil Service Order of January 1913 is that for the cadre of Assistant Commissioners, and technically therefore as both Assistant and Under Secretaries belong to the same cadre it is not in any way affected by an increase or decrease in the number of Under Secretaries so long as that is due to a corresponding decrease or increase in the number of officers bearing the other designation of the Secretariat viz., Assistant Secretary. On the whole there would be no alteration in the scale of Assistant Commissioners. It is obviously not possible to have in the Secretariat, always Assistant Commissioners of a particular class who could be designated Under or Assistant Secretaries at the number fixed for each in the Government Order of 1913. In order therefore that the actual state of affairs existing existing at any time may be exactly in accordance with the rules on the subject, I would suggest that the number separately fixed for each class of officers of the Secretariat viz., Assistant and Under Secretaries, may be done away with and in its instead a combined number for both together may be inserted with the particulars entered as in the case of the Assistant Commissioner on duty with the Dewan, who takes on his Secretariat designation of Assistant or Under Secretary according as he is a Senior or Junior Officer of the cadre of Assistant Commissioners.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Sir,

With reference to your letter No. 4633-5-9-276 dated the 27th. January 1914, I am directed to state that as there can be no objection to the appointment of an Assistant Secy against a vacancy among Under Secretaries, Govt do not consider it necessary to adopt
